

Arcadia Farm Camp Manager

Overview: Arcadia seeks a Manager for our Summer Farm Camp. The Manager will be primarily responsible for managing the conduction of the Farm Camp program and supervising a small team of Farm Camp Counselors during five, one-week sessions at our working farm on the grounds of Woodlawn, a National Trust Historic Site, in Alexandria, VA.

We are seeking an enthusiastic individual who is passionate about working with kids and who enjoys being outdoors in a farm setting. We are focused on our Farm Campers, and look for a strong background in working with children and staff in a camp setting. Camp counselor or camp management experience is preferred. Farming or gardening experience is preferred, but not required.

At Arcadia Farm Camp, we seek to connect children to where their food comes from through hands-on farming, cooking, and eating experiences. Campers will develop an understanding of the origins of food, seasonality, sustainable agriculture, land conservation, and culinary arts. Our goal is to help create the next generation of sustainable farmers, chefs, and eaters.

Background: Arcadia is a non-profit organization serving the Washington, D.C. Metro area. Arcadia's mission is to create a more equitable and sustainable local food system to improve the health of our community, increase the viability of local farmers, and preserve the environment for future generations. Arcadia has three interrelated program areas: Food Access, Farm and Nutrition Education, and Sustainable Agriculture.

Reports to: Farm Education Director. Farm Camp Manager will also work closely with Farm Camp Counselors and Interns.

Hours: Start date is June 6, 2022 and end date is August 19, 2022. Full time, seasonal for 11 weeks. There are varying hours for Training, Farm Camp weeks, and Close-Out. The summer equals out to the equivalent of 40 hours per week. Dates and hours are as follows:

- Pre-Camp Preparations: TBD – July 8 (Mon-Fri) from 9am-3pm (some flexibility).
- Counselor Training: July 4 - July 8 (Mon-Fri) from 9am-4pm.
